Beyond the Blue

You left me beautiful memories
Memories I hold dear
They're what keep me going
Now that you're not here
They help me when I miss you
And I miss you more and more each day
They're reminders of the love we knew
And cheer me on my way.

I was so blessed it's true
That in a world full of people
I should love
And be loved
By you.

Secret Sneaker

You sneak up on me
When I least expect you to
You sneak up on me
And everytime you do
You put a smile upon my face
You put a song within my heart
You make my world a happy place
You show me that we're not apart
How I love you sneaky you
And the way you sneak up on me
I hope somewhere beyond the blue
I've sneaked into your memory.

NORMA WATTS

A picture in a Frame

Each and every morning
There's someone I say Goodmorning to
And someone whom I kiss Goodnight
When the day is through
He's on my mind the whole day long
Now don't be sad, don't get me wrong
You were my only love my whole life through
But oh he comes a close second to you
While you're not here he takes your place
He has your kind and smiling face
I love him but it's just not the same
'coz it hurts to have to love
A picture in a frame.

Prisoner of Love

No bars, no chain to hold me
No padlocks on the door
And yet here I am your prisoner
Now and forever more
Your love holds me prisoner
I never wanted to be free
Just hold me prisoner in your heart
For all eternity.

My heart has a mind of its own

I don't want to think about you
Though I know that's just in vain
Because each time I think about you
I wish we were together again
Yet my heart it still remembers
The greatest love it's ever known
And though I might try
To quiet my heart
My heart has a mind of its own.

Valentine's day has come and gone
My love for you will go on and on Valentine's Day is over
Now just what should we do
With all the cards and messages
Professing 'I Love You'
Roses that cost a small fortune
Stayed fresh for just a day
Now wilted and drooping
Just to be thrown away
Love is really so much more
Than moonlight cards and roses
And one day set aside for
'Lovers' – Like the world supposes.

A lifetime of memories
A heart full of love will never fade away

Valentine days have come and gone
Our whole life through
But what stood the test of time
Was the love between me and you
We didn't need pretty flowers
Or cards saying 'I Love You'
All we needed was each other
And the precious love that we both knew
We knew roses would wilt and die
Pretty cards turn dull and grey
But a lifetime of memories
And a heart full of love
Would never fade away.

Two for tea
And a tea for two
You and me
Me and you
I remember the beautiful way
We would always start our day
With just you and me
And a cup of tea
And how happy we both would be.

I hold your memory
Heaven holds you

This heart of mine is filled
With memories of you
Memories of a love
Always sweet and true
It's these precious memories
That have seen me through
I hold your memory
Heaven holds you.

I miss you dearly of course I do
How could I not miss
Someone as wonderful as you
Yet in your absence I still find
Tranquility and peace of mind
Because the love we both knew
Will forever be
A sweet memory
Of you and me.

Memories

You and me
You and I
And the years gone by
Fresh in my memory yet
Me and you
And the love we knew
How could I ever forget
We're not together
But it won't be forever
This parting won't be in vain
Please wait for me
Someday I know we will be Together again.

Forever and ever and ever
I Love You
You know I do
You know it's true
Forever and ever and ever
You'll be the one
The only one
For me
Even though you're way beyond the blue
You know that I will forever love you
Forever and ever and ever
You'll always be
My best memory
My favourite dream
Forever and ever and ever
My love will be
Forever yours
Eternally.

I'll never know just what I did
To deserve someone like you
I'll never know what I ever did
To deserve a love so true
But I will ask no questions
I don't need to know the reason why
I'm just grateful for the blessing
Of a love that will never die.

NORMA WATTS

That's amore

I see stars in the sky
Through the tears in my eyes
That's amore
When my heart skips a beat
At a memory sweet
That's amore
We'll meet again
Don't know where
Don't know when
Senor
Our love was meant to be
For eternity
That's amore
Amore.

Even though we're so far apart
Your memory is safe here in my heart
I know that someday we will be
Together for eternity.

Beautiful memories of Christmas
I once spent with you
But you're no longer here with me
So this is what I do
I just thank the good Lord
For the way he blesses me
At Christmas time and always
With beautiful memories.

It's hard when you lose the one you love
It's hard believe me it's true
I wonder why I'm laughing and joking around so much
Shouldn't I really be missing you
Then I look up at your picture in the frame
And you seem to be saying to me
For someone who always had her head screwed on right
Don't you think you sound quite insane
I don't want to see you moping around
And grieving for me endlessly
Life's meant to be lived so go out and live it
While I watch over you tenderly
Live life to the fullest and when life is done
You know I'll be waiting for you
And we'll be together forever and ever
Somewhere way beyond the blue.

You're way beyond the blue
And we're so very far apart
While you may be hidden from my view
I still see you clearly with my heart.

When I lay my head down on my pillow
And the moonlight's streaming through
When I lay my head down on my pillow
You know that's when I most miss you.

It's okay when I am feeling sad
It's okay when I am feeling bad
It's okay when I feel blue
It only means I still love you
It's okay when a sad song plays
And the tears run down my face
When I sit alone with your memory
It just means I love you endlessly.

I said I'd never love again
Go through this heartache and this pain
But that's something I just can't do
Cause I'm still so much in love
With the memory of you
Every morning when I awake
I find your absence hard to take Lonely nights they slowly creep
And sweet memories of you
Won't let me sleep
So I go through the heartache and the pain
Keep falling in love each day again
I know there's nothing I can do
Because I'm still so much in love
With the memory of you.

Just out of reach of my two empty arms

Of course you're smiling down on me
You have every reason to you see
 'Coz you can see me everyday
Though you're so very far away
I wish that I could see you too
 As I look up beyond the blue
But since I know that cannot be
I must be content with your memory.

Grief – So you thought it would go away
Sad – But grief is always here to stay
One day you're happily walking on air
Next you wonder why life is so unfair
So on the days when you're feeling sad
Just sit it out – some days will be bad
And when grief gives you a short reprieve
Count the many blessings that you receive.

Only You

The sun doesn't shine quite as bright
The moon she hides her face at night
The flowers have lost all their perfume
Even the birds sing out of tune
Only you have the song I long to hear
The stars shone brighter when you were here
Only you could brighten my day
Why did you have to go away?

Could you sneak out of heaven
Just for a day
And slide down to earth
Along the milky way?
Though I'd love you to stay on Even one day will do
You've been gone for so long
And I'm missing you.

They say 'nothing lasts forever'
I don't believe that's true
Because always and forever
I'll be loving you.

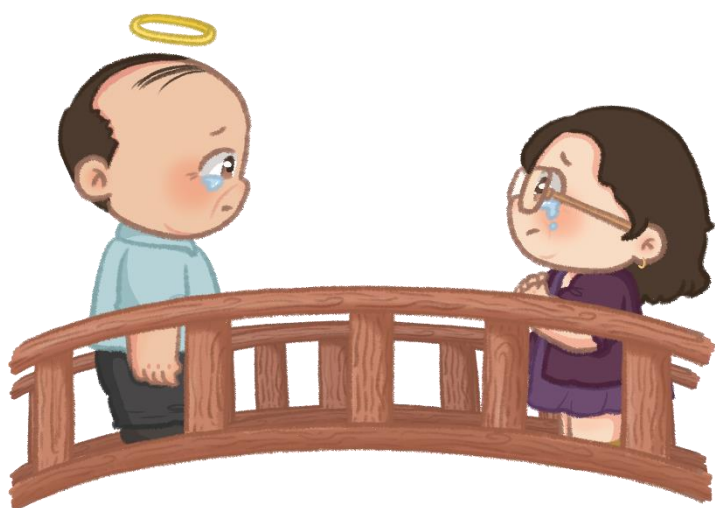

Don't expect me to forget you
That could never be
We've shared too much together
You're my most precious memory
Love wove its magic in our lives
Until the day you left
You gave me so much to remember
Tell me how can I forget?

Ever since you went away
I cry a little everyday
To release some of the sadness
To help ease the pain
Make room for a little gladness
So I can smile again.

The jigsaw remains
Incomplete
Till we meet
Me and You
Beyond the blue.

I hung my heart out to dry
It was soaked with tears
I hung my heart out to dry
'Twas filled with souvenirs
Remembrances of you
And a lifetime gone by
Of a love so true
As I hung my heart out to dry.

The memory of you
Lights up my day
The memory of you
Chases all sadness away
You're so far away
I miss you it's true
But what lights up my day
Is the memory of you.

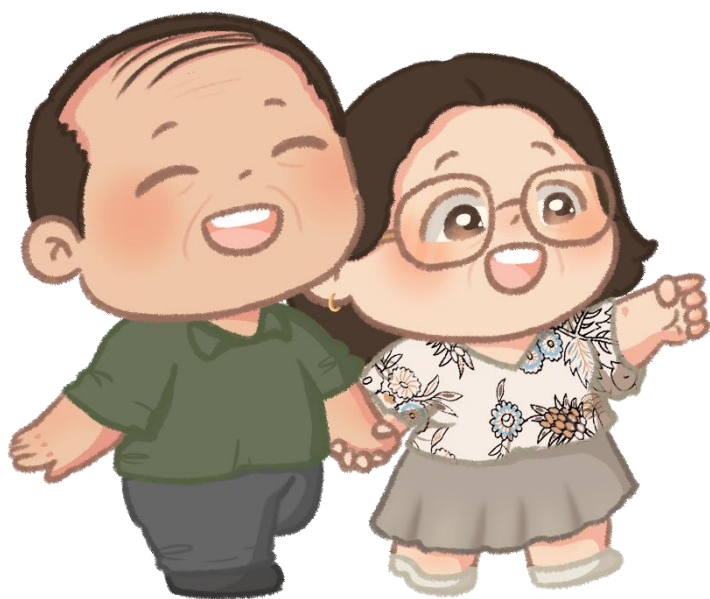

This empty space between you and me
Nothing will ever fill
Because I loved you dearly
And I always will
But we will bridge this gap one day
And be together for eternity
Till then it must remain this way
An empty space between you and me.

I'll hold you in my heart until I can hold you in heaven

I know you look down from heaven with love
And smile when you see me each day
If only I could see you in heaven above
But heaven is so far away
Is the gentle breeze your warm sweet touch?
Are the stars the twinkle in your eyes?
Can you hear the wind whisper I miss you so much?
Can you hear it beyond the blue skies?

Impossible to forget someone who gave you so much to remember

How long will I keep remembering?
I really cannot say
Especially since I think of you
Every moment of each day
Will it take weeks or months or years
Or will it be forever?
I think the answer's very clear
I'll be remembering till we are together.

I've lived all my life
In the shelter of your arms
Safe from all danger
Safe from all harm
Don't worry how I manage now
As you watch from up above
I am still safe and secure
In the shelter of your love.

Loss changes everything except 'Love'

When we meet once again
And meet we will I'm sure
Don't look for the person I was then
I'm not that person anymore
Your leaving, it changed me
In ways I can't quite explain
So when we meet in eternity
Here's how you can find me again
Don't look for the old familiar face
That once so well you knew
Look for a heart filled with a quiet grace
From a lifetime of loving you.

Two years too long

I miss you
Just two years – how could it be
It seems like an eternity
I loved you then – I love you still
But I must bow to his holy will.

What is left to say
Since you went away
Words mean nothing at all
Sadness doesn't say a word
But it can be clearly heard
In the teardrops that fall.

Memories are the way we hold on to the ones we love

When there's a faraway look in my eyes
A hint of a smile playing on my face
It really should come as no surprise
It's because I've retreated from the world
To my own happy place
I'm living a life of memories
Memories of a love so warm and true
I'm living a life of memories
Memories of a life
That I once shared with you.

With you I am a winner

I played the game of love
Like all good gamblers do
So blest I picked a winner
The day that I picked you
I never lost a single game
'Coz it was very clear to see
With you I held the aces
Just how lucky I must be.

You will forever be my always

My words paint pictures of you
Brush strokes made so clearly
Spoken pictures of a love so true
Of a love I cherish dearly
As I write I can almost touch
(And I know someday I will)
The one I loved so very much
The one I always will.

Love is patient

The longing of a lonely heart
An oft whispered prayer
The deep sad yearning
For someone no longer there
The slow passage of time
The sadness and the pain
Such things I must patiently endure
Till we are together once again.

I wonder how I get through
Each long and lonely day
Because each day without you
Hurts more than words can say
Then your memory comes along
And turns grey skies to blue
And my heart sings out a song
Each time I think of you
Thank you for all the memories
That you left behind
It's treasured memories like these
That keep you forever on my mind.

We were blessed by true love
 You and me
A very special kind of love
 It almost seemed unreal
Then angels came to take you home
 And you just had to go
And I keep on wondering
Why true love must hurt so
 You can't have a rainbow
 Without a little rain
 To feel joy like ours
You must know a little pain
 So I'll weather the storm
Till the sun comes out once more
 Then I'll cross the bridge
 To that distant shore
There will be no more sadness
 There will be no more pain
 And we will be together
 Forever once again.

There's a smile on my face
Everywhere I go
Why I'm always happy
People just don't know
It's 'coz I smile each time
Each time I think of you
And I think of you
The whole day through.

Just when I think I'm healing
Another memory comes along
Just when I think I'm healing
I tear up at the words of a song
Just when I think I'm healing
Someone mentions your name
True love knows no healing
The wound will always remain the same
If that's the price for loving you
I'll gladly bear the scars
For a love that's found by only few
A love as sweet as ours.

How beautiful it is
The language of love
Written in our hearts
And in the stars above
It's in the eyes of a loved one
Words they don't need to say
It's in the little things they do

Day after day
It's in holding hands
Or a quick stolen kiss
A whispered 'I Love You'
Or a glance you can't miss
The language of love
It comes straight from the heart
Unspoken yet understood
The language of the heart.

Little reminders everywhere
Your picture here, perfume there
The newspaper stack
The shoe rack
Your shades 'neath the TV
Your house key
The watch you wore
Your bank books drawer
Your favourite chair
Reminders everywhere
That love lived here.

Please wait for me
Beyond the blue
Till I come home
To be with you.

You know I miss you dearly
I miss you every single day
But you belong in heaven
And heaven is so far away
I can clearly see a rainbow
A bridge 'twixt you and me
A promise we will be together again
For all eternity.

When evening shadows start to fall
And sweet memories start to call
It's then I miss you most of all
My soul mate
When the stars come out each night
And the blue moon shines so bright
Do you hear a whispered 'Good Night'
My soul mate?

Could I borrow you from heaven
Just for a single day?
I guess the answer would be 'NO'
For I could never let you go away
So I must learn to be content
With the precious love we knew
And for the many happy years we spent
A taste of heaven on earth for me and you.

I loved you with all my heart
I could not have loved you more
I knew some day we'd have to part
And sadly I would love no more
But I did find love again you know
I'm in love with an angel you see
From beyond the blue
He looks down below
And gently whispers he loves me.

No one said it would be easy
But nothing prepared me for this How broken hearted I would be
And just how much I would miss
Holding hands, your warm embrace
Your good morning and good night kiss
Seeing your ever smiling face
Never thought it would be like this
One thing though I knew for sure
When you flew to heaven above
That I would have forever more
The memory of your precious love.

I never ever imagined
When we both had to part
It would feel like a sword had cut
Me deeply through the heart
But to have known a love like yours
Was more than worth the pain
And given yet another a chance
I'd still love you over and over again.

Tell me what should I do
With this love I have for you
That fills my heart to bursting
And leaves me always thirsting
For a little reprieve
Just a glimpse – no matter how brief.

I don't want to dream of you
Dreams play tricks with my mind
'Coz when I wake up in the morning
Not a trace of you I find
It starts the deepest longing
To see you one more time
How do I explain this futile longing
To this lonely heart of mine.

Do you read my letters?
Do read them over again
Can you feel my heart ache?
Can you feel my pain?
Can you see how much I love you
Always have and always will
When we meet beyond the blue
I'll be loving you still.

Can you hear my heart – beating just for you?
Can you hear it clearly there beyond the blue?
Can you see the memories stored safely there within?
Are they carried up to you by the gentle wind?
Can you hear it speak – do you listen to it say?
I miss you very dearly every single day
I still hear your heartbeat I still feel your love for me
Heaven favours true love for all eternity.

I believe in miracles
I believe that dreams come true
I believe someone waits for me
Somewhere beyond the blue
I believe we'll be together
My one true love and me
Always and forever
For eternity.

What can stop love once it's broken?
Not the setting sun nor the break of dawn
Nothing on earth below or sky above
Can separate two hearts bound by love
Though you may be out of sight
Your love fills my heart both day and night
Nothing can separate you from me
Not time, nor space, for love is for eternity.

Nobody could ever know how much I miss you
I try not to show the world when I feel sad and blue
It's really very hard you know
To stop the teardrops once they start
So I keep a smile on my face
And hide the teardrops in my heart
Where it waters every memory we have ever made
So these precious memories will never ever fade.

I hope you're not fretting for me in heaven
God knows I was the apple of your eye
Just remember we'll meet once again in heaven
Somewhere beyond that blue blue sky
I know heaven won't be heaven for you
Without me there by your side
But keep that beautiful smile on your face, won't you?
We'll be together whenever heaven should decide.

NORMA WATTS

I've fallen in love so many times
How lucky I must be Falling in love so many times
Came naturally to me
For sixty years I kept falling in love
Each and everyday
And if you're looking down from above
You know it will forever be this way
Falling in love was so easy
It was the easiest thing to do
Especially when I was head over heels
In love with wonderful you.

I never thought I'd see the day
When I would wake to find
That you had quietly slipped away
And left me here behind
No longer would I wake to see
You beside me everyday
Or smile at your 'Good Morning Babes'
That I loved to hear you say
Mornings without you break my heart
You knew how to start my day just right
But if mornings without you I must start
Then could I at least dream of you each night?

Love always and forever

They say in time you will forget
And learn to smile again
But those who have known
Glorious love
Must be prepared to Endure the pain.

Tucked away safely in my heart
My eyes they long to see you
My lips to call your name
My arms they long to hold you
Close to me again
Oh! But then I realise
Do I really need
These arms, these lips, these eyes
To feel you close to me?
Though you are now beyond the blue
Nothing can keep us apart
For your memory and my love for you
Are tucked away safely in my heart.

I'm walking around
With my feet on the ground
But my thoughts are way up in the blue
I've a smile on my face
I'm in my happy place
All because I'm thinking of you
I can see you smile down
At me walking around
With my head up there in the clouds
Thinking of you
Like I always do
If only thoughts could speak out aloud
They'd say I'm still so in love
With an angel above
And I know that he still loves too
So I'll keep walking on air
As I think of you there
Somewhere beyond the blue.

God knew what he was doing
When he called you away from me
If he called for me and left you behind
How tragic that would be!
I know had it been any other way
Your heart would have broken in two
What sustains me day after day
Is only the sweet memory of you
Although you and I both wanted
To be the first the Lord called above
We were ready to face undaunted
The final soulwrenching act of love.

Indelibly inked

People sport their tattoos
They call it body art
No one knows I have one too
It's tattooed on my heart
It never will go out of style
It will forever stay the same
My tattoo says 'I Love You'
Right next to your name.

Some things never change
Like the people whom you love
Even though they're not here with you
They're now in heaven up above
You still feel their love and guidance
You still feel their gentle ways
You can hear them whisper softly
I'm with you everyday
Please don't cry when you think about me
Don't let sadness flood your heart
Love binds us for all eternity
We will never be apart.

You left without any warning
You left without goodbyes
On that dull and rainy morning
You left me with tear filled eyes
No time to spend a little while
My heart had so much to say
How I longed to see your sweet sweet smile
Before you went away
You always said "You won't be lonely
I will never be too far away"
You kept your word for I feel you near me
Each and every day
Thank you for memories precious and dear
Of the life we spent together
It helps me cope now you're not here
You know I will cherish them forever.

I miss you everyday
There is so little I want
Yet so much
Just to see you again, hear your voice
Feel your touch
And say 'I Love You'.

Three little words
I whisper everyday
Three little words
Hold all I want to say
Three little words
That made our dreams come true
Those three little words
“I Love You.”

Whenever I talk about you
My eyes keep straying to your chair
It's something I can't help but do
Even though I know you are not there
But after all these years together
And happy conversations everyday
There is no way I can ever
Stop my eyes as they always stray
To the vacant chair beside me
Where you sat happy as can be
The vacant chair beside me
That now holds your memory
It might seem there's no one sitting there
But you and I both know
As my eyes keep straying to the chair
I picture someone I love so.

Our story is not over still
And we both know it never will
It's just this chapter when we must be apart
It will end – so another can start
One where we will walk hand in hand
Beyond the blue in the promised land.

A frame holds your picture
A song our melody
The pages of a book
Hold your precious memory
Angels keep you company
While we are far apart
But I am blest as blest can be
For you left me your heart.

There's an aching deep inside
There are tears I cannot hide
There's a longing for the way things used to be
There's your picture in a frame
And my heart still calls your name
But all I have is a precious memory
A memory of your love so sweet and true
The memory of loving someone as wonderful as you
How could I love somebody new
When I'm still in love with you
How I tremble at the mention of your name
You fill my thoughts both night and day
In my heart you'll always stay
Oh how I love your picture in a frame.

Someone down here is hurting
Hurting because she misses you
Someone down here is hurting
Because you're so far away beyond the blue
Someone down here is longing
Longing while tears fill her eyes
Someone down here is longing
For a glimpse of you beyond the skies
As you look down from the blue
You know just how she misses you
Don't you?
So won't you wipe away her tears
Make her sadness disappear?
Let your love envelop her, won't you?
Put that smile back on her face
Make her world a better place
That is something you and only you can do.

Don't cry for me, don't shed any tears
When you miss me just look back on the years
We were blessed to spend joyfully together
Let those memories keep you smiling forever
When you turn to look at my vacant chair
Please don't be sad because I'm not sitting there
I live in your heart and there I'll always stay
Still loving you dearly day after day
I want you to be happy, I want you to live
There's so much to the world that you have to give Just go out there and give life your best
While here in your heart and your love I will rest.

Ready or not here it comes again
The sadness and the pain
The heartache of not seeing you each day
The stark reality that you have gone away
Ready or not here it comes again
The sadness and the pain
Without warning
With each day's dawning
Here it comes again.

I try not to think of you
Now that you're not here
Because when I think of you
It often brings a tear
Do you think I can ever
Forget that you have gone
Will this ache last forever
Or will you help me move on
You know that the memory
Of your love sweet and true
Is the only thing that helps me
To live this life without you.

Each time I think that I have no more tears to cry
My eyes fill up again as thoughts of you come by While the memories you left are very sweet and true
My heart yearns for just another glimpse of you
But my tears quickly stop when I look up and see
Your precious picture in the frame smiling just for me.

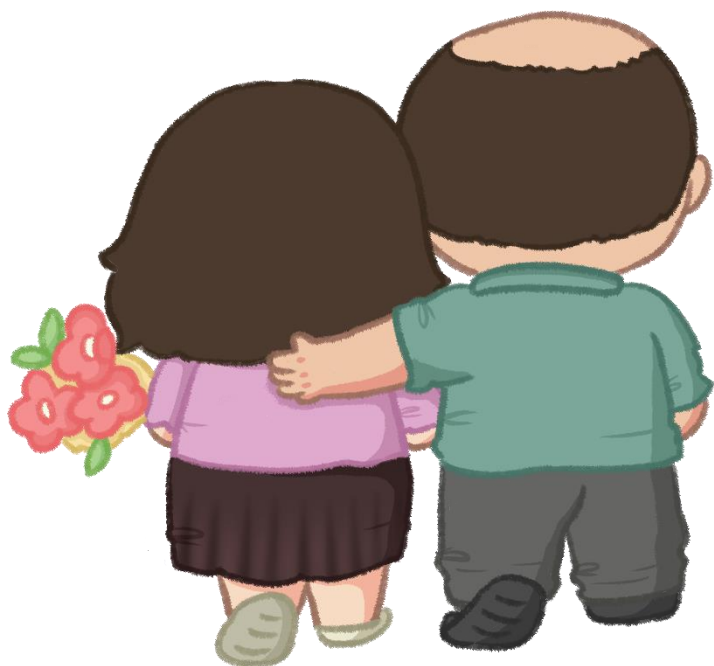

Hope

And so another day goes by
And still I seek the reason why
We must be parted you and I
By this chasm between earth and sky
I know that someday we will be
Together forever you and me
Precious memories help me to cope
They fill my heart with peace and hope.

I love your smile

Somehow you always seemed to know
Whenever I was feeling low
When I was sad you could always tell
You'd catch each tear before it fell
The kindest words you always found
To turn the greyest day around
Though you're not here I'm not alone
To go through life all on my own
I look up at your picture and see your smile
And once again life is worthwhile.

Sweet memories

I hold on to your memory
I will never let it go
Because you mean the world to me
And I still love you so
So till the day we meet once more
Somewhere beyond the blue
All that I keep living for
Are sweet memories of you.

An angel watches over me

Through life's changing seasons
You gave my heart so many reasons
 To smile
Now though you've gone away
 I look back each day
 Remembering for a while
How you said you would always be there
 With your love and care
 Forever
To make sure when you were gone
 I would never be alone
 Ever.

The flame may have gone out
But not without
Leaving the embers
Of a love my heart remembers
When by your absence I hurt
I can find comfort
In the warmth of your love
Till we meet up above
Beyond the blue
Where our love will continue.

You, memories and me

These words keep pouring from my heart
Nothing can arrest them once they start
They speak of sweet memories I have of you
And of a love precious and true
They spring unbidden any time any place
These memories time cannot erase
So I put them into words each day
To make sure these memories never fade away.

This side of heaven is lonely without you
I wish you could sit awhile with me
And tell me about life beyond the blue
Where angels fly around happily
I will tell you how life goes on down here
And how I spend my time each day
How I hold on to memories so dear
To help me along my way
But I know my heart it speaks with you
And love still keeps us together
So I will wait till we meet beyond the blue
When we will be reunited forever.

Precious memories remain

It's hard to believe that life still goes on
After the one you love has gone
Day follows night and night follows day
Even though a loved one has slipped away
We move on through the loss and the pain
With treasured memories that remain.

Love forever the same

Your love changed my life in so many ways
Losing you has changed it too
What has stayed the same always
Is the love I have for you.

Blessed with memories
Each morning when I wake up I see
One toothbrush where two used to be
A sad reminder that you have gone
While memories forever linger on.

I believe God has his reasons
I wonder why you went away
I wonder why you could not stay
Why we didn't get to say goodbye
Before you got your wings to fly
What unkind stroke of destiny
Would take you away from me
I've searched for answers but could not find Any that would ease my mind
Ours is not to know time and season
This much I believe – God has a reason.

Together beyond the Blue

Somewhere beyond the blue
 someone waits for me
Some day beyond the blue together we will be On that day I'll find joy beyond compare
Because beyond the blue
 I know you will be there
Till that day I will live and love and smile through loss and pain
Because some day beyond the blue we will be together again.

Thoughts of you wash over me
As tears roll down my face
I do not call that grief you see
I call it 'Sweet remembrance and grace'.

Adieu Not Goodbye

When heaven called out your name
You left without a goodbye kiss
Life will never be the same
And I must learn to live with this
But goodbyes are not forever
They are just a fond adieu
Till the day we will be together
Somewhere beyond the blue.

My own Special Angel

How blest am I to have an angel in heaven up above
Who always watches over me and showers me with love
A very precious angel
I can call my very own
Always flying close to me so never feel alone
He always was an angel –
then God gave him wings to fly
My very special angel is now up there
Beyond the blue blue sky.

They said the pain would go away
But it gets harder everyday
Not to see your smiling face
Everything I say or do
Brings back sweet memories of you
Memories time cannot erase
You know that since we've been apart
I hold you closely in my heart
But that doesn't stop my missing you
I guess I must live with this pain
Till we are together once again
Never more to part beyond the blue.

Because this love will forever stay the same
There's this picture of us in a heart shaped frame
And so that the two of us need never be apart
I have you tucked away safe and sound in my heart.

We don't lay the past to rest
When the past has given us the best
I hear them say 'What's past is past
It's time to move on don't you see'
They don't know our love was made to last
Beyond eternity
When the past holds the memory
Of a love so sweet and true
The past will always be precious to me
Because the past holds wonderful you.

Framed in a picture Captured in my heart

Since You've been away my life is not the same
I miss hearing you lovingly call out my name
I wake up each morning to find that you're not there
And all that I see is your empty chair
I miss sharing our first cup of tea
Such a beautiful time – there was just you and me
You would read the papers I would check my phone
Now with my cup of tea I sit here all alone
But my eyes light up when I look up and see
Wonderful you smiling at me
From that beautiful picture of you in the frame
And I know then everything is still the same.

Love knows no parting

Have you really gone away
I don't believe that's true
Because you know there is no way
My heart would allow you to
You could never be away from me
Even though you're beyond the blue
Held in my heart and memory
I am never far from you.

The palette of memories

Oh how you coloured my world
With every colour under the sun
My world looked bright and beautiful
When the colouring was done
You coloured it with a love
That was so sweet and true
Splashes of colour still fall from above
And I know they come from you.

I was blessed with your love
For so many years
I won't wash it all away
With sadness and tears.
Though we are now apart
This much is I know is true
Your precious love still fills my heart
From beyond the blue.

A love that dreams are made of

You gave me so much to smile about Left me with beautiful memories there is no doubt
I know I should not cry for you
But some days crying is all I can do
Knowing you're not here with me
Is really hard to bear you see
Although small consolation it might seem Could I at least see you in my dreams?

My heart is in safe keeping with you

I love everybody
That's what we are called to do
But the only one who holds my heart
Always was and will be you.

Love knows no reason...

It just is

You're not just a picture in a frame
I wear your ring – I share your name

You will forever and ever be
Not just a picture but a part of me.

Smile your everlasting smile

There's that smile again
The one I loved you for
There's that smile again
The one I see no more
Though now I cannot see
You smiling down at me
This much I know for sure
Someday I'll see that smile once more.

Forever and ever
Amen

I will love you till I die
Till to this life I bid goodbye
I'll hold you in my heart till then
And then I'll love you once again.
